Hypnotist returns to DePauw next week

Tom DeMolo will bring his award-winning show to Kings Auditorium in the Performing Arts Center at 9 p.m. on Friday, March 7. In the past, students have had trouble seeing DeMolo. DeMolo’s show depends on hypnotizing audience members and getting them to do humorous things. His act has won several awards, including a National Association for Campus Activities named him the best hypnotist in his field.

Pullitzer Prize winning journalist to speak

1996 Pulitzer Prize winning author Laurie Garrett is coming to DePauw. Garrett, author of “The Coming Plague,” is writing a book on Emerging Diseases in a World Out of Balance,” will be speaking at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 5 in Meharry Hall. Garrett, a science writer for New York Newsday, is scheduled to speak about the increasing number of deadly microbes which continue to plague humanity.

Sergeant-at-arms elected by Congress

One final member of the new Student Congress Executive Board has been elected. Student Congress members selected sophomore Orlando Santos to be the new sergeant-at-arms. Beanz said the role of the sergeant-at-arms is to maintain order in the meetings, to serve as a link to the Student Congress and to mean commitments, and to be the realistic expert in organizational procedures.

DePauw students explain why greek life is not for them

Independence Life

Alkman said he thinks independent life, at DePauw, would be difficult, but independence would allow him to go to any party without obligations to a specific house.

“Whenever you're doing something, there are certain norms you have to play by,” said Alkman. “When you're in a house like that, we would usually look into (g unk a greek house again).”

“I don't feel a little left out. I try not to let it stop me, and I don't want to act differently around people because of it.”

SLANT: Magazine ‘tasting the real world’

We are the DePauw student newspaper. We’re interesting, we’re hip, we’re about DePauw University. We get around. We’re students, we’re the future. We’re young. We’re smart. We’re DePauw.

None of us come to DePauw to be ‘politely correct.’ We say what we think, do what we want, regardless of the consequences. Why? Because we’re students, we’re the future. We’re DePauw.

We don’t take ourselves too seriously. We laugh at our corny jokes, we know we’re not perfect, and we don’t get too upset when people disagree.

We are the real world. We are DePauw.
