      1. 2018 Orientation Schedule
General assistance is available in the lobby of the Memorial Student Union Building on Friday from 9 a.m.-1:30 p.m. During the day on Monday and Tuesday, students can visit the Office of Student Academic Life in the Memorial Student Union Building, room 210, for any questions or concerns. Lost and found items may be turned in or recovered at DePauw Public Safety, located in the lower level of 101 E. Seminary St.

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU ARRIVE

- First station: Residence Hall check-in
  - Go directly to your residence hall and park your vehicle. While volunteers help unload your car, proceed to Humbert Hall in the South Quad to check in if you are in Bishop Roberts Hall, Heggie Hall, Humbert Hall or Longden Hall, or to Lucy Rowland Hall in Upper Quad if you are living in Lucy Rowland Hall.
  - Get your room key and student ID.
  - Complete housing check-in.
  - Pick up a schedule for the day and check your advising meeting location.

- Second station: Your room
  - Start unpacking and meet your roommate(s) and your first-year resident assistant.

- Third station: Information tables – Memorial Student Union Building, lobby and campus living room
  - Visit the information tables and talk with representatives of a variety of campus offices.
  - Learn about services offered by DePauw Health and PNC Bank.
  - Pick up your parking permit or register your vehicle (bring vehicle registration and student ID if you have not registered online). After information tables close, permits are available at the Office of Public Safety, located in the lower level of 101 E. Seminary St.

Families should proceed to the Green Center for the Performing Arts, Krape Auditorium for convocation seating. Overflow seating for families will be in Moore Theatre.

7 p.m.
Convocation procession gathering
Ubber Quadrangle
Students should report to Ubber Quadrangle, located across the street from the Memorial Student Union Building, to line up for the convocation procession. In case of rain, meet in the lower level, west hallway of the Green Center for the Performing Arts.

9 p.m.
Building community
Your residence hall floor
Meet your five-year resident assistant(s) and fellow community members and learn about expectations we have for how we live in our communities.

SATURDAY, AUG. 18

7 – 9 a.m.
Breakfast
Hoover Hall, main dining room
8:30 – 10 a.m.
School of Music advising session (for students in the School of Music only)
Green Center for the Performing Arts, room 1115
School of Music students will receive information about their fall course schedule, degree programs in the School of Music, ensemble auditions, concert attendance, lessons for music instrument privileges, opportunities for students, staff accomplishments and extended studies opportunities. At 9:30 a.m., information specific to music education majors will be shared. Following this session, School of Music students will attend the 10 a.m. DePauw Gold Commitment session in the Green Center for the Performing Arts, Moore Theatre.

9 – 11 a.m.
The Value of the Liberal Arts at DePauw and The DePauw Gold Commitment
During this time block, you will attend two sessions. Your mentor will tell you your assigned times and locations.

The Value of the Liberal Arts at DePauw
Green Center for the Performing Arts, Krape Auditorium
Anne Harris, vice president for academic affairs and professor of art history, will share thoughts with you about how to combine your coursework with your passion and ambition. She will explain the reasoning behind the general education requirements you will take in your first two years at DePauw, as well as what it means to have a major in a liberal arts college.

The DePauw Gold Commitment
Green Center for the Performing Arts, Moore Theatre
Cindy Balfoort, vice president for strategic initiatives, will talk about the DePauw Gold Commitment, including expectations we have for you and what you can expect from DePauw.
